

EMERGING ARTIST CONCERT SERIES

Sounds of ENCHANTMENT

Beethoven, Liszt,
Ysaÿe, Poulenc, Prokofiev

Luke Bowen | piano
Cedar Newman | violin

St Jude's Bowral

WED 1 March

1:15 pm - 2:15 PM

FFEATURED ARTISTS

Luke Bowen studies piano with Prof. Robert Constable, he has performed extensively as a solo and orchestral pianist. Luke plays with outstanding clarity and a beautiful expressiveness, which brings to life the composer's intent.

Cedar Newman's passion for the violin was nurtured in Wollongong and led to studies and performances in Sydney, Europe and New York. She is known for her nuanced colours and technique, which serves the music.

ABOUT THE SERIES

The EACS aims to nurture our next generation of musicians and bring their talent into regional communities through accessible daytime concerts.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Email:

inspiremusicaust@gmail.com

Call: 0408 422 427

To book performances, please scan the QR code or visit events.humanitix.com/tours/emerging-artist-concert-series-2023

UPCOMING CONCERTS

Wondrous Flute Melodies

April 5, 1:15 at St Jude's

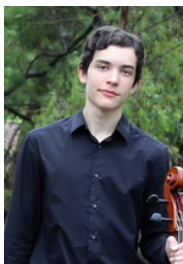

Annabel Wouters | flute
with David Vance | piano

Meditations by Nightfall

May 3, 1:15 at St Jude's

Paul Nicolaou | harp
Robert Smith | violin

An Odyssey of Romance

June 7, 1:15 at St Jude's

Jack Theakston | cello
with John Martin | piano

*The EACS allows individuals like myself to freely explore our creativity and musicality by assembling a concert program that I am passionate about and feel connected to. This allows a genuine delivery of the concert, ensuring a positive experience for both the performers and audiences, where audiences can be guided through an immersive musical story, all whilst granting invaluable experience to the emerging performers. Paul Nicolaou